OLD BUSINESS

- City Tree Lighting – Commissioners discussed the impact of the rain, and Commissioner Angel made suggestions for next year’s recruitment during the event.
- Letters to Santa- Commissioners discussed the replies to letters to Santa, and Commissioner Ignacio provided the Commission with positive feedback of the activity.

- City Council Appointments- Commissioner Lester informed the Commissioners about the presentation to Council. He mentioned that he was nervous, but that the presentation went really well. The Commissioners received warm feedback from Council.
- Family Giving Tree Holiday Event- Commissioner Jonathan reviewed the activities and noted that the event required additional Commissioners to support.
- Animal Shelter Donation Drive- Commissioner Angel reminded the Commission about the budget and supplies that the Commission had agreed to purchase. Staff Liaison Elise informed the Commission that PD delivered the supplies on Wednesday, December 18th, and that the Commission's support was greatly appreciated.
- Winter Social- Commissioners discussed the Winter Social. Commissioners Valentino and Kimyatta described the activities and fun that they had.

NEW BUSINESS

- Electing New Officers- The Meeting did not meet quorum so no vote was held. Staff Liaison Elise discussed the different positions, responsibilities, and how long the terms are for interested Commissioners. The Commission nominated their peers for the various positions. The discussion was then continued until the next meeting.
- Youth Summit 2020 Subcommittee Meetings- Commissioner Wendy reminded that the subcommittee meetings will begin on Thursday, January 9th, and will reoccur on non-regular meeting Thursdays.
- Get Real Academy 2020-. Staff Liaison Elise described the opportunity available for senior girl Commissioners. The Commissioners will have the option to represent the SPYC during the event on Thursday, March 5th, 2020. Staff Liaison Elise will arrange for transportation to and from the event. A packet of information was distributed to eligible Commissioners.
