APPROVAL OF THE MINUTES

- Minutes were approved for the regular meeting held on Thursday, June 21st, 2018.

PUBLIC COMMENT

- Mr. Cordell Hindler- Mr. Hindler invited the Commissioners to The West County Mayors and Supervisor's meeting next month. He will get back to the Commissioners with the date. Mr. Hindler also reminded the Commissioners about how impressed he was, by their presentation to City Council, last month.

SUBCOMMITTEE REPORTS

- SPYC Design 2.0- Staff Liaison Elise reported that the Summer Interns will be starting their positions sometime next week. The exact date is to be determined. The meeting for the design of the SPYC scholarship will be held on October 11th, 2018. Staff Liaison Elise noted that she wanted to increase the SPYC's civic engagement by having meeting with neighboring Youth Commissions. Elise will be working with the Commission to achieve this in the fall.

- Collections Drive 2018-Vice Chair Kimmy informed the Commissioners that community members can still donate items, to the Back to School Closet, by bringing items to Building 6. Staff Liaison Elise stated that she applied to the Kaiser Permanente East Bay Sponsorship, on behalf of the SPYC. The San Pablo Youth Commission was awarded $1,000 for the Back to School Closet Event. These funds will enable the Commissioners to once again provide attendees with bags for the event.

NEW BUSINESS

- Revision of By-Laws- Vice Chair Kimmy motioned to open up a discussion of the proposed by-law revisions. Staff Liaison Elise facilitated the conversation. The Commission will continue the discussion during their next meeting.
- Oaths/Code of Conduct- Vice-chair Kimmy informed the Commissioners of what the Code of Conduct was for, and she also reminded the newly appointed Commissioners to sign their Code of Conduct and Oath papers.
- Sort Collection Items- The Commission selected the dates of July 9th and July 11th from 4-6pm.

OLD BUSINESS

- None-
