Employee Of the Year

Brandon Oswald

Officer Brandon Oswald grew up in the City of Concord, and graduated from Concord High School in 2013. Prior to becoming a police officer, he was a Police Explorer and CSO with the Concord Police Department. Brandon started with the San Pablo Police Department in December of 2017, after graduating the Napa Valley College Police Academy. Brandon is married, with a 7 month old daughter. Brandon holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Criminal Justice from California Coast University. In his free time, he enjoy fishing and golfing.

He was awarded Employee of the Month for performing infant CPR. Thanks to Officer Oswald's quick actions, a baby's life was saved. The hard work and dedication by him exemplify the tenets of our Department's mission of "Dedicated to Providing Exceptional Police Service."
